Dear Pastor and friends,

Lithuania Camp results

The German couple that we have sent to Lithuania report holding a countrywide youth camp outreach. With trepidation, Marian Kozak spoke to their hearts about the need to place their trust in Jesus Christ as their only opportunity for forgiveness and a right standing with the Heavenly Father.

An invitation was given and hearers were challenged to make a public decision. To the surprise and joy of the workers 40 young people rose to their feet and committed their hearts to Jesus!

Baptism of ten

On July 27th we baptized again. This time we baptized in the local river. This is always exciting for me personally. It has now been one year since the massive stroke and to participate is so thrilling.

One man shared how that he was an adulterer, who now knows the joy of forgiveness as well as changed perspectives. His life is now completely different, he shares.

Six month checkup

Our executive pastor, Noël Kachouh, has proven to be such a help and asset for our ministry. Looking back, it is clearer that to get bigger, we must get better. He brings gifting and talents that complement my strengths and I sense that we are better positioned to grow through growth barriers now.

Yours, in His service,

Keith and Debbie Gandy
